We Welcome New Members to the Vestry!

Sarah Walsh is a native of Brockton, Massachusetts. She is a graduate of Boston University and the School of Oriental and African Studies at the University of London, with degrees in Art History and Japanese Studies. Prior to coming to Los Angeles, she lived in Tokyo for two years as a recipient of a research fellowship from the Japanese government's Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (Monukagakusho). While in Tokyo she studied in the architecture department of the Tokyo Institute of Technology, where her research focused on vernacular architecture and popular representations of domestic space in the postwar period. She came to Los Angeles in mid-2010 to commence a PhD in History at UCLA, where she continues her study of Japanese architecture, art, and politics. Sarah lives in Mid-City with her delightful roommate Emi and two superb felines, Pasha and Bertie.

Kevin Joyce is originally from New Haven, CT. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia and the Fordham University School of Law. He practiced law in New York with Morgan Lewis and Bockius before moving to San Francisco and into investment banking in 1991. He began his banking career with First California Capital Markets Group and later worked for Sutro and then Sutter Securities. He pioneered a tax-exempt multi-family housing bond program for low-income tenants utilizing a rent to own model. He has been a founder and served on the board of a number of start ups including Local Voice and Emerging Technologies. His wife Melissa runs Communications and Public Affairs for Occidental Petroleum. The couple lives in Westwood with their son Townes.

Hermann Elger relocated to Los Angeles at the end of 2010 where he is now the General Manager of Montage Beverly Hills. Hermann is joined by his wife Rebecca, and children Eva (8), Tres (5) and Ivy (2). The Elgers are excited to be living in such a wonderful city and grateful to be a part of the St. Alban's community. They had spent the last 7 years living in Cancun, Mexico and prior had spent time living in Miami, Washington DC and Southeast Asia. Hermann calls Denver, Colorado home and Rebecca is originally from Cleveland, Ohio.

Caroline Reyes is originally from London, England. Her family moved to Minnesota when she was a child and to Los Angeles as a teenager. St. Alban's is and has always been a special place to Caroline, as her mother was active in the church when she was a child and young adult living in Bel Air. Caroline started to attend St. Alban's herself while she was in college. Caroline met her husband, Mark at Occidental College and they have a three-year-old daughter, Bea. Caroline is a graduate of USC Law School and currently practices law in Century City. Caroline participates in Altar Guild and always likes to help with the children's activities at the church. In her free time she enjoys traveling, playing bridge, and running after Bea!

Lunch Bunch!

On Tuesdays from 11:00 am—12:15 we pull out Bibles, commentaries, and our own beliefs and ideas to explore the scriptures in depth. Meet us some Wednesday in the Library and join in a very stimulating conversation. We are studying Israel's prophets, using a classic book by Abraham Heschel, The Prophets.

Join us, Wednesday, February 15, starting at noon for Eucharist and lunch*. We celebrate the Eucharist at Noon, and have lunch around 12:30 pm in the Library. It is always an uplifting time of fellowship and spiritual encouragement. Share in the fun and RSVP! Sign-up sheet is on the Welcome Table.

Christian Covenant Classes

Sundays from 11:45 am — 12:30pm in the Library, starting Sunday, February 26, we will offer the Christian Covenant Class. This is a series of classes designed to help those who are either new to the Christian faith, or would like to renew their understanding. We will look at all of the basics of belief and practice, using Scripture, the Book of Common Prayer and our own experiences. We will hold these classes from Feb. 26 through April 1st. Those who take the class will be prepared either for baptism or for the renewal of their baptismal vows at the Easter Vigil.

Then, after a short break, we'll begin the Anglican Journey Classes, April 22-May 6. More specific to the Episcopal Church, these classes will prepare candidates for Confirmation/Reception with Bishop Glasspool who will be making an official visitation to St. Alban's on May 13th.

We will have a sign up on the Welcome Table for both classes.
